MEDIA ADVISORY

Alders Hamilton, Johnson co-hosting upcoming vaccination drives

1st District Alderman Ashanti Hamilton and 2nd District Alderman Cavalier Johnson are teaming up with VISIT Milwaukee, the forthcoming 3rd Street Market Hall, Associated Bank, YMCA, Uber, The Kitchen Cabinet, The Milwaukee Bucks, MMAC and Novir to host two vaccination drives this June at Holy Redeemer Institutional Church of God in Christ located at 3500 W. Mother Daniels Way. The first event will take place this Sunday, June 6 from 9 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. and the second will occur on Monday, June 28.

No appointment is needed to receive a vaccine and a free lunch will be provided by Dairyland Old-Fashioned Hamburgers, Pepper Pot, and more. The first 250 people to get vaccinated will also receive a free hat, courtesy of the Milwaukee Bucks

Currently, 46% of Milwaukee County residents have received at least one vaccine, while 39.3% have completed the vaccine series. Aldermen Hamilton and Johnson are encouraging area residents not yet vaccinated to take advantage of this opportunity to receive their vaccine.
