Redistricting Virtual Public Meeting

Alderman Cavalier Johnson invites residents to attend a Virtual Public Meeting this week regarding redistricting the 4th Congressional District. The event will take place Thursday, January 14 from 5:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. and is available to anyone interested in attending.

The meeting will primarily focus on how best to prepare proposed maps for the Legislature to consider during redistricting proceedings. These maps, “shall, whenever possible: be free from partisan bias and partisan advantage; avoid diluting or diminishing minority votes, including through the practices of ‘packing’ or ‘cracking’...” as well as other criteria listed in Governor Evers’ Executive Order which was passed on January 27, 2020.

The meeting will be led by Christopher Ford, Ben Rangel, and other members of the board in charge of redistricting the 4th Congressional District of Wisconsin.

The live meeting can be watched at <https://govstatus.egov.com/peoplesmaps/hearings-meetings>.
