MEDIA ADVISORY

Council President and County Executive to testify at joint finance committee hearing

Common Council President Cavalier Johnson will be joined by County Executive David Crowley to testify at the State of Wisconsin's Joint Finance Committee public hearing on the proposed 2021-2023 biennial budget. The hearing will take place tomorrow – Wednesday, April 21 at 10 a.m. in Rhinelander, WI.

President Johnson will provide testimony in support of providing local governments with the opportunity to generate revenue to provide property tax relief through sales tax referendum. This, along with other investments, will enable the City of Milwaukee and Milwaukee County to attract the businesses and people to be a globally competitive metro region that helps drive the state economy forward. President Johnson and County Executive Crowley are expected to testify within the first hour of the meeting. Testimony can be viewed live virtually via Wisconsin Eye.
