Annual Heal the Hood Block Party returns to uplift the community TOMORROW

Alderman Milele A. Coggs invites residents to attend the annual Heal the Hood Block Party and resource fair, occurring at N. 9th St. and W. Ring St., TOMORROW - Saturday, July 17 from 12:00-5:00 p.m. The event is free and open to the public.

The Heal the Hood campaign strives to promote self-sustainability and non-violence, and encourages all to join the conversation on how to end violence and crime in the community by coming together and making a change. This weekend's block party will include resources from community organizations, live music, showcases from the Milwaukee Flyers tumbling team, free food, giveaways and more.

"I am glad to see the return of the Heal the Hood Block Party this year. This event represents an opportunity for like-minded people looking for different ways to heal and help the community to enjoy each other's company in a positive setting. I look forward to a great event tomorrow," Alderman Coggs said.

The event is presented by Heal the Hood Milwaukee, and sponsored by the Milwaukee Health Department Office of Violence Prevention's 414 LIFE Team, African American Roundtable, Alderman Coggs and the City of Milwaukee.
