MEDIA ADVISORY

Second MKE Black Summer Marketplace happening tomorrow

Tomorrow at 11 a.m. the second MKE Black Summer Marketplace, an outdoor marketplace focused on uplifting local Black-owned businesses, will take place at the Beerline Plaza, 3356 N. Holton St. The event is presented by MKE Black, a non-profit that provides a directory of Black-owned businesses in the greater Milwaukee area, as well as connects businesses to resources, capital, and networks. Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs encourages residents to visit the marketplace and take in all the food, commerce and music the event has to offer.

The event is free and open to the public and will be hosted on the fourth Saturday of each month throughout the summer. Additional information can be found at <https://mkeblack.org/>.
