Annual Bronzeville Sleepover for Education School Supply Delivery happening TODAY

Alderman Milele A. Coggs will be visiting Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. School TODAY – Monday, August 23 at 1 p.m. to deliver school supplies collected during the Bronzeville Sleepover for Education that occurred during Bronzeville Week.

The Sleepover for Education supply drive, a part of Bronzeville Week, annually collects school supply donations to benefit Milwaukee Public Schools students in need. The event was organized by Tracy Dent and the Peace for Change Alliance. Mr. Dent will be in attendance with Alderman Coggs, State Senator Lena Taylor and Principal Anesia Hayes. Media is invited to attend.

“I want to extend a sincere thank you to all the organizers, sponsors, and those who contributed supplies in support of the Sleepover for Education. Because of this community effort, we are able to donate school supplies to students in need and help provide a boost to the beginning of their school year,” said Alderman Coggs.
