MEDIA ADVISORY

Mobile Market at St. Joseph's Hospital starts today

Alderman Khalif J. Rainey invites residents to shop the Piggly Wiggly Mobile Market at St. Joseph's Hospital. The single aisle grocery store on wheels will be parked on W. Burleigh St. next to the hospital for two weeks, starting today (Monday, May 3).

Alderman Rainey said the Mobile Market will offer fresh and healthy food at affordable prices and will operate from 11 a.m. – 6 p.m., Monday through Friday. "Residents are invited to shop on board and receive 25% off all regular store pricing thanks to a grant in partnership with Hunger Task Force. Please come down and see what this great resource is all about," he said.

The market accepts debit cards, credit cards and Quest EBT, and no cash will be accepted at the mobile market. Those who are eligible for FoodShare will be assisted by the Hunger Task Force FoodShare Outreach staff during market operating hours. Fresh fruits, vegetables, milk, yogurt, eggs, meat, and more will be available at the market for 25% off the retail price.

"Your purchasing will inform what foods should be stocked in our district, and help leaders at St. Joseph's, the Hunger Task Force and the City of Milwaukee eventually create a grocery store inside the hospital," Alderman Rainey said.
