Milwaukee Diaper Mission first birthday party, community event happening Sunday

The Milwaukee Diaper Mission, a local nonprofit organization that works to distribute disposable and reusable diapering and period supplies to families in need, is celebrating its first birthday with a community celebration this Sunday, October 3 from 2 – 5 p.m. at South Shore Park, 2900 S. Shore Drive. Alderwoman Marina Dimitrijevic, whose district houses the Milwaukee Diaper Mission and site of the celebration, is encouraging members of the community to come join in on the family-friendly fun.

“The Milwaukee Diaper Mission does incredible work to meet a critical need within our community, and I’m proud to have them as a member of the 14th District,” Ald. Dimitrijevic said. “I’d encourage everyone to join me Sunday at South Shore Park to celebrate their first birthday, partake in all the fun, and learn more about their incredible mission.”

The event, which is free and open to the public, will include a petting farm, live music, cider tasting, food and more. The event is put on in partnership with Taste of Home and Milwaukee Mom.

Since launching in September 2020, the Milwaukee Diaper Mission has distributed 162,616 disposable diapers, 89,802 disposable period products, 1,946 reusable cloth diapers, 1,064 reusable cloth pads and 173 reusable menstrual cups.
