The Essential Needs Assist event to support residents set for May 17

Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II is partnering with former National Basketball Association player and Milwaukee native Mike Taylor and the Taylor-Made Foundation MKE to present The Essential Needs Assist – a fresh food items and mental health awareness handout event. The Essential Needs Assist will be providing more than 2,000 boxes of food including produce, milk, meat and more for local residents on Monday, May 17 from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m. at Unity Gospel House of Prayer located at 1747 N. 12th Street.

“I want to thank Mike Taylor and his team for putting this event together to benefit our local residents, and I’d encourage those in need to come down to Unity Gospel House of Prayer on Monday to receive their fresh food and mental health awareness materials,” said Alderman Stamper.

Resource boxes will be available via drive-thru while supplies last. Additional partners for the event include Walmart, The International Brotherhood of Teamsters and Tabak Law, LLC.
