Ald. Dodd hosting public safety meeting for District 5 residents this Saturday

On Saturday, June 25 at noon Alderwoman Nikiya Dodd will be hosting a District 5 meeting with an emphasis on public safety. The meeting will be an opportunity for residents of Cooper, Nash, Kops, and Lindsay Parks, along with other areas of the 5th District, to meet directly with those working to enhance public safety and have specific questions and concerns addressed. The meeting will take place at Nash Park, 7800 W. Nash St. near the swing sets.

In addition to Alderwoman Dodd, there will be representatives from the Office of Violence Prevention, Safe & Sound, Milwaukee Police District 7 and the Urban Ecology Center on hand to discuss crime prevention and reduction in District 5 neighborhoods.

“Public safety continues to be a top priority when talking to residents throughout the district, and this community meeting will offer an opportunity for those in the area to hear directly from people working on this issue. I would encourage the 5th District to join us Saturday and bring any questions or concerns they would like addressed,” said Ald. Dodd.
