Celebrate Earth Day by cleaning up your community

Statement of Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs April 22, 2022

Today is Earth Day, a time for us to reflect on ways in which we can better our environment, and act by going out and participating in one of many Earth Day related activities.

I am proud to have sponsored the 5th Annual MKE Harambee Clean Up that took place earlier today from 11 a.m. – 3 p.m. Volunteers met at Pete’s Fruit Market, 2323 N. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr., and worked in the rain while cleaning up the neighborhood. Thank you to everyone who came out, and for those who were not able to attend, please stay tuned for another Harambee Clean Up date to be announced.

Tomorrow (Saturday, April 23), volunteers should meet at Commerce and Fratney at 9 a.m. to help with the Beerline Neighborhood Cleanup.

There are also numerous other ways to get involved and support Earth Day this weekend. Milwaukee Riverkeeper will host their annual Milwaukee River Spring Cleanup event tomorrow from 9 a.m. – noon, and the Urban Ecology Center will be hosting cleanup events starting at 9 a.m. tomorrow at its Riverside Park, Washington Park and Menomonee Valley sites, among other events citywide.

It is incumbent upon all of us to play our part in preserving our environment. Not just today, but every day.
