Mother's Day Marketplace event set for Sunday

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs and Alderman Nik Kovac invite residents to explore the Riverworks' 53212Marketplace Mother's Day Edition taking place on Sunday, May 1, at 3700 N. Fratney St.

The event will feature a variety of food and beverages for sale by local establishments, and 30 local vendors will also have various products for sale, including body products, candles, specialty foods, textiles, books, art, jewelry, fair trade coffee, plants, and more.

"This is shaping up to be an excellent Mother's Day event, and I commend Riverworks for putting this all together," Alderwoman Coggs said. "Please come out on Sunday and support local businesses as you enjoy something to eat or drink, or pick up that perfect gift for mom."

Alderman Kovac: "It is great that we are able to get together as neighbors again at a Riverworks event and support local businesses. Please stop by on Sunday and find something to show a mother she is loved."
