Ald. Borkowski invites residents to public safety focused community engagement session

Alderman Mark A. Borkowski invites residents to a community engagement listening session on Saturday, November 19th focused on the Milwaukee Police Department's Community Oriented Policing engagement plan.

Alderman Borkowski said citizens can attend on Saturday, November 19 at the Brass Key Restaurant in the 11th Aldermanic District, 4952 W. Forest Home Ave. from 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. "I strongly encourage residents from across the district to attend the November 19 session and provide their valuable input," Alderman Borkowski said.

Food and refreshments will be available to those in attendance.

The meeting is being hosted by the Community Collaborative Commission and will feature a solution-driven, facilitated discussion on the development of the Community Oriented Policing engagement plan. The Milwaukee Police Department, Fire & Police Commission, Office of Violence Prevention, and the Community Collaborative Commission are currently working together to gather public input in a city-wide listening session process.
