Howl on Howell returns this weekend to showcase local businesses

Alderman Scott Spiker is encouraging residents to visit Howell Ave. this weekend for the 2nd Howl on Howell business showcase and neighborhood festival. Howl on Howell will offer family-friendly fun while providing a platform for local businesses to showcase their offerings to the community. The event will take place Saturday, June 4 from 11 a.m. - 3 p.m. for businesses and 11 a.m. - 7 p.m. for pubs and restaurants. The festivities continue on Sunday, June 5 from 11 a.m. - 5 p.m. for all participating vendors. Food trucks, business booths, live music and a variety of other activities will be found on Howell Ave. from W. Martin Ln. to E. Howard Ave.

“Howl on Howell launched in 2019 and received great feedback from both participating businesses and visitors. I’m delighted that we can once again host this celebration that highlights the diverse establishments that exist along Howell Ave.,” said Alderman Spiker.
