District 14 town hall meetings to take place this weekend

14th District Alderwoman Marina Dimitrijevic is inviting district residents to participate in one of two in-person town hall meetings set to occur this weekend. Dubbed the “Safe Spring” series, the town halls will focus on a variety of public safety issues and include representatives from Police Districts 2 and 6, the Department of Public Works and the Office of Violence Prevention.

“Public safety continues to be a top priority in my conversations with residents, which is why I’ve invited representatives from various city departments to our spring town hall meetings to share updates and address questions directly,” said Alderwoman Dimitrijevic. “I would encourage those across the district to join one of our town hall meetings this weekend and take advantage of this in-person opportunity.”

The first town hall will take place on Saturday, March 19 from 10:30 – 11:30 a.m. at Urbal Tea, 3060 S. 13th St. The second town hall will follow on Sunday, March 20 from 10:30 – 11:30 a.m. at the Humboldt Park Pavilion, 3000 S. Howell Ave.

Residents can RSVP by emailing marina@milwaukee.gov and include any topics or questions they would like addressed during the meeting.
