MEDIA ADVISORY

Tomorrow: Block Party honoring Emani “Flash” Robinson

Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II invites community members to a block party honoring the life and memory of Emani “Flash” Robinson TOMORROW - Friday, July 1. Commemorating five years since his passing, the block party will celebrate the life of Robinson and help support his family.

The festivities will include a cookout, bounce house, DJ, and other activities including planting in the Emani “Flash” Robinson Garden. The party will be from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. and will be in Sherman Park on N. 39th St. between W. Center and W. Clarke.

“I encourage neighbors to use this block party as an opportunity to come together and support each other and the community as well, as we celebrate the memory of a promising young man who was lost too soon,” Alderman Stamper said. “Emani is remembered as a loved family member and friend who could always brighten the day of anyone who had the opportunity of spending time with him.”
