MEDIA ADVISORY

Community resource fest set for Saturday, April 9

Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II and Alderman Khalif J. Rainey are encouraging area residents to attend the “It’s a Spring Thing” community resource fest set for this Saturday, April 9 from 1 – 4 p.m. at Parklawn Assembly of God, 3725 N. Sherman Blvd.

“We would encourage residents to stop by this resource fest on Saturday to have fun, bond with your neighbors and learn about various community programming and resources as well,” said the Aldermen.

The event, hosted by Dream Team United MKE, Parklawn Assembly of God, and New Hope Youth & Family Services, will include a variety of community-based organizations that will be in attendance to provide information and resources, as well as free haircuts, a grocery distribution, and a variety of giveaways and family-friendly activities.
