

---

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

---

FOR INFORMATION CALL

---

May 12, 2023

Ald. Milele A. Coggs
(414) 286-2994

MEDIA ADVISORY

Author William Kellibrew IV to appear at America's Black Holocaust Museum

Join Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs at a free event on Monday, May 15 featuring William Kellibrew IV, global victim and trauma survivor advocate and author of Resilient Rose.

The event, tabbed "A Conversation with William Kellibrew IV," will also feature Pamela Coggs-Alexander, Washington, D.C.-based mentor, teacher, and musician. "Monday's event will be thought-provoking and inspiring, with enriching discussions across a broad range of subjects," Alderwoman Coggs said. "I strongly encourage interested individuals to join us."

The Coggs family and Northcott Neighborhood House are partnering with the museum to put on the event. Refreshments will be served.

What: A Conversation with William Kellibrew IV

When: Monday, May 15 from 5:30 pm-7:30 pm

Where: America's Black Holocaust Museum, 404 W. North Ave.

-30-