Call for vendors goes out for the Bronzeville Cultural & Arts Festival

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs invites interested vendors to apply to be a part of the 2023 Bronzeville Cultural & Arts Festival – set for Sunday, August 6 on W. North Ave. from N. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr. to N. 7th St.

The festival is a signature event during the 12th annual Bronzeville Week, set to run from Saturday, August 5, to Saturday, August 12, 2023.

Interested vendors can now access the 2023 Bronzeville Cultural & Arts Festival vendor portal here.

“The Cultural and Arts Festival has regularly drawn thousands of attendees and provides a prime opportunity to be seen and visited by interested customers during one of Milwaukee’s signature events for those interested in African-American culture, commerce, music, dance, and art,” Alderwoman Coggs said. “If you are a vendor who wants to be a part of this exciting and dynamic event, please fill out a vendor application as soon as possible.”

Bronzeville Week, an official City of Milwaukee event, is an annual experience that honors the residents of our beloved community, reimagines what is possible and pays tribute to an area of historic significance for Milwaukee’s African-American community – all through the celebration of commerce, art and culture, which yields robust benefits to the entire city.
