Heal the Hood Block Party & Resource Fair Returns Tomorrow

Aldерwoman Milele A. Coggs is encouraging residents to attend the 11th Annual Heal the Hood Block Party & Resource Fair taking place tomorrow - Saturday, May 27 from 12 p.m. – 6 p.m. on Burleigh St. between 8th St. and 12th St.

The event will include a variety of music and other entertainment, vendors, a children and youth area, free food, as well as employment resources, housing resources, and other community support resources.

For more than a decade, Heal the Hood MKE and founder Ajamou Butler have worked to develop a unique approach to building community collaborations with the end goal of creating a more progressive and peaceful Milwaukee. Through their annual block party outreach campaign that includes two to four block parties a year, Heal the Hood MKE seeks to create safe spaces for communities to thrive, network, and unite around commonalities.
