Community candlelight vigil to take place TONIGHT

Common Council President José G. Pérez is inviting members of the community to attend a candlelight vigil, prayer service, and procession around the block at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church, 605 S. 4th St. beginning at 6:30 p.m. tonight – Friday, October 27.

Those participating are encouraged to bring a portrait of any family member, neighbor, friend, or colleague who was the victim of violence, and to bring a placard with a peace-promoting, anti-violence message to carry during the short procession. The program will include a bilingual prayer service at 6:45 p.m., and the procession beginning at 7:30 p.m.
