Sister of late rapper Tupac Shakur to appear tomorrow at Hyfin Radio

Common Council President José G. Pérez is encouraging interested individuals to attend a FREE conversation event being held tomorrow (Saturday, June 3) with Sekyiwa ‘Set’ Shakur, the half-sister of the late world-renowned rapper and actor/artist, Tupac Shakur.

Ms. Shakur shared the same mother as Tupac - Afeni Shakur - while her father was Tupac Shakur's stepfather Mutulu. She and Tupac grew up together in Harlem, NY, and she now runs the Tupac Amaru Shakur Foundation, which focuses on an array of services for mental health awareness, youth and creative arts, and families affected by incarceration.

The event is being presented by the Keep Your Head Up Society, and moderated by Jasmine Tyler. The doors open at 12 p.m. and the event will start at 1 p.m., and there will be free community resources available.

What: A conversation with Sekyiwa ‘Set’ Shakur
