Annual Airport Gardens Neighborhood Association Rummage Sale is Tomorrow

Alderman Scott Spiker is encouraging residents of the 13th District and those citywide to participate in the annual Airport Gardens Neighborhood Association (AGNA) Rummage Sale set to take place tomorrow – Saturday, June 3 from 8 a.m. – 3 p.m. The 2023 rummage sale is slated to have more than 75 participants within the AGNA boundaries of East of Howell, South of Howard, West of Whitnall, and North of Layton.

Additional information and a map of participating addresses can be found by visiting <https://www.agnamke.com/>. An info table with maps will also be available day-of at 351 E. Bolivar Ave.

Visit the Garden District Neighborhood Association table at 4207 S. Austin for $2 vegetables and $4 annuals/perennials for sale. Every purchase comes with a free ticket for a chance to win prizes.

“Each year I look forward to the Airport Gardens Neighborhood Association rummage sale, often considered the largest and best in the city,” said Alderman Spiker. “Whether you’re looking for home goods, outdoor equipment, or something else the rummage sale truly offers something for everyone, and I hope to see many new and familiar faces at the event.”
