Inaugural Bay View Community Health Fair will take place Saturday, January 21

Aldewoman Marina Dimitrijevic is inviting area residents to attend the first Bay View Community Health Fair that is set to take place this Saturday, January 21 from 10:30 a.m. – 2 p.m. at Grace Presbyterian Church, 2931 S. Kinnickinnic Ave. The event is sponsored by the Bay View Neighborhood Association and Bay View Community Center.

Those who attend the health fair will be able to receive a variety of free health screenings and resources including: Dental exams; vision screenings; memory screenings; child lead poisoning tests; developmental assessments; blood pressure and glucose checks; and much more. There will also be raffles and food giveaways throughout the event.

“Keeping our community healthy and thriving is of the utmost importance, and I want to thank the Bay View Neighborhood Association and Bay View Community Center for partnering to produce this event. I would encourage everyone to stop by and take advantage of these free offerings,” said Alderwoman Dimitrijevic.

RSVPs for the health fair are not required but are encouraged and can be accessed here. For additional information, please call (414) 482-1000 or email diana@bayviewcenter.org.
