Ghostly Garden Walk Haunts the Garden District this Sunday

13th District Alderman Scott Spiker is inviting all area residents to participate in the Ghostly Garden Walk set for this Sunday, October 27 from 5:30 – 7 p.m. Those interested in participating will start their walk on the bricks on Norwich between 5th and 6th Streets, trick-or-treat through the tunnel, and proceed to the gazebo for an optional craft activity. There will also be a Haunted Mansion display present through Saturday, November 2. The event is suitable for youth of all ages.

“The Garden District welcomes the Halloween season this weekend with a wonderful event that young people of all ages can enjoy,” said Alderman Spiker. “I greatly appreciate the Garden District Neighborhood Association for hosting this event for families, and hope to see plenty of costumes and excitement, as well as both tricks and treats.”
