MEDIA ADVISORY

Employ Milwaukee hosting Social and Human Services Hiring Event on May 14

Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II invites the public, and recently laid-off Social Development Commission (SDC) employees in particular, to attend Employ Milwaukee’s upcoming Social and Human Services Hiring Event on Tuesday, May 14. The event will take place from 3:00-5:00 p.m. at Employ Milwaukee’s headquarters at 2342 N. 27th St. The hiring event is open to the public, and recently dislocated SDC employees are especially encouraged to attend. On-the-spot interviews will be held for a variety of social and human services positions. Candidates must bring a resume to interview.

15th District Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II highly encourages all those seeking a fresh start, including recently laid-off SDC employees, to attend the event.

“Finding or losing a job is never easy, but this hiring event promises to help those seeking work, and especially former SDC employees, the opportunity to find a new position and start a new career or chapter in the important social and human services sector,” Alderman Stamper said. “Those at Employ Milwaukee and myself are dedicated to helping all residents find a meaningful job and one that fits their current skill set. I hope that all those interested will make plans to take part in this great event.”

For more information about the hiring event, please contact Frederick Nelson at (414) 270-1738 or at frederick.nelson@employmilwaukee.org.
