Thanksgiving Community Resource Dinner set for TOMORROW – Saturday, November 8th

Alderman Peter Burgelis invites residents to join in a spirit of gratitude and community at the annual Free Community Thanksgiving Dinner, taking place TOMORROW - Saturday, November 8, hosted by Live Laugh Loaves. The event offers a free meal and warm fellowship for all who wish to attend, but pre-registration is required.

“Neighbors gathering, sharing a meal, and expressing gratitude is what makes our community so special,” Alderman Burgelis said. “I urge everyone to participate in this significant day, and I express my sincere gratitude to the organizers, volunteers, and sponsors who make this celebration possible each year.”

The Free Community Thanksgiving Dinner has become a cherished tradition for residents across the city, providing not only food but also friendship and connection during the holiday season.
