Youth and Young Adult Leadership Council Kickoff Listening Session

Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II is inviting residents to attend the Youth and Young Adult Leadership Council Kickoff Listening Session on Thursday, May 1, from 4:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m. at ThriveOn, 2153 N. Doctor MLK Jr. Dr. This event will provide the opportunity for community members to share their story and connect with others and discuss how we can make a better and stronger Milwaukee for our youth. There will also be a free dinner provided.

“Milwaukee’s future is in the hands of our youth, and their leadership begins with being heard. The Youth and Young Adult Leadership Council Kickoff Listening Session is not just another meeting — it’s a chance for young people and the entire community to come together, share our lived experiences, and build real solutions,” Alderman Stamper said. “I invite you to join us in creating a future where every young voice is valued, every dream is supported, and every story matters. Together, we can build a Milwaukee that reflects the hopes and strength of all our residents.”
