
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FOR INFORMATION CALL

July 10, 2026

Ald. Andrea M. Pratt
(414) 286-2228

MEDIA ADVISORY

Stronger Together, Brighter Tomorrow event comes to District 1 Saturday

Alderman Andrea M. Pratt is inviting residents to attend the Stronger Together, Brighter Tomorrow day of love, hope, and community event taking place tomorrow – Saturday, July 11, from 1 – 5 p.m. at Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church, 2025 W. Cornell St. The event is hosted by Dream Team United WI and New Pitts Mortuary, and will include haircuts and hair braiding, a grocery giveaway, shoe giveaway, in addition to free cooked food, music, games, and activities for youth of all ages. The event is free and open to the public.

“Countless community partners have come together to provide a day of empowering youth, supporting families, and uplifting our community,” said Ald. Pratt. “I want to thank all those involved for their efforts, and encourage community members to join the celebration.”

What: Stronger Together, Brighter Tomorrow day of love, hope, and community

When: Saturday, July 11, from 1 – 5 p.m.

Where: Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church, 2025 W. Cornell St.

-30-