Bronzeville Week continues with events highlighting fashion, wellness, and more

Bronzeville Week, an official City of Milwaukee event hosted by Ald. Milele A. Coggs now in its 16th year, continues this week and includes a variety of family-friendly events, vendors, and exhibitions that promote health, art, culture, commerce, and a positive atmosphere in the Bronzeville district for all to enjoy.

On Tuesday, August 4, Building Bronzeville, a panel discussion with local members of the development community, starts at noon at Bronzeville Kitchen & Lounge, 2053 N. Dr. MLK, Jr. Dr. Moderated by Deshea Agee, the panel will include Carla Cross, Nicole Robbins, Ray Hill, LaShawndra Vernon, and Donna Page. At 2 p.m., Jadah Webb will host the 30-minute makeup tutorial Glow Like Bronzeville – Naturally You. The event will be held virtually and can be viewed on <https://www.facebook.com/BronzevilleWeek>. The day concludes with Tuesday Tacos & Games from 7 – 9 p.m. at Summer of 85, 2213 N. Dr. MLK, Jr. Dr.

Events continue on Wednesday, August 5 with the annual Bronzeville Business Breakfast from 8:30 – 10:30 a.m. at America's Black Holocaust Museum, 401 W. North Ave. Registration is required and can be accessed at HistoricKingDrive.com/breakfast. From noon – 4 p.m., Rooted 'N Natural, an indoor/outdoor community experience of open learning, confidence, and healing through natural hair, will take place at Allah Mode, 1942 N. Dr. MLK, Jr. Dr. Line Dancing with Lady Jai Janay from 4 – 6 p.m. rounds out the day. The event will take place on Garfield Ave. between Dr. MKL, Jr. Dr. and Vel R. Phillips Ave.
