11th Annual Granville Blues and Jazz Festival this weekend and next

The Granville Blues & Jazz Festival is a cherished annual celebration of Milwaukee's diversity and Granville's proud heritage. The festival features great blues, jazz, R&B and rock and is taking place these last two weekends of July.

The event – will be held at 8633 W. Brown Deer Rd. – July 18-19 and July 25-26 from noon to 10 p.m. everyday. It is free admission, with vendors and food for purchase at the event.

Alderwoman Larresa Taylor invites the Milwaukee community to check out the festival. "This festival is a perfect opportunity to join your community by listening to great music and soaking up the beautiful summer weather! Please stop by and check it out!" she said.

All four days include music, food, and drinks. Bands include the Lady A, Mike Wheeler, and Melman. Other featured artists include Terry Wright, Vick Allen, and Kelly Price. Please go to www.granvillebusiness.org or www.facebook.com/GranvilleBusiness for more information.
