For the first time in franchise history, the Milwaukee Brewers are World Series champions!

This historic achievement reflects the talent, determination, and teamwork of the players, coaches, and entire Brewers organization, capturing the pride, resilience, and spirit of Milwaukee in the process. This “small market” team never quit and always punched above its weight, even in the face of adversity.

This remarkable season, which included a franchise record and league-leading 103 wins, is being felt across generations of fans, throughout neighborhoods, and rippling across the state. An entire community united around one moment to celebrate a truly special outcome is a memory fans young and old will never forget.

We will keep celebrating today, tomorrow during the championship parade, and hold on to this feeling forever. The team and city have earned it. We won, and we won our way, capturing the attention and imaginations of baseball fans everywhere.

Congratulations, Brewers! Thanks for bringing the title home.
