Perennial Exchange and Garden District Plant Sale Set for Saturday

Alderman Scott Spiker is inviting area residents to participate in the Fall Perennial Exchange this Saturday, September 26. The event will take place in Milwaukee's Garden District parking lot on S. 6th Street and W. Norwich Avenue (one block south of Howard Ave.) from 10 a.m. to noon. There will also be mums, plants, and other plant items for sale.

Participants are asked to mark their plants with name, height, and color.

"For those who are looking to spruce up their gardens, this is a great way to share plants with others while saving some money," Alderman Spiker said. "Even if you don't have anything to swap, considering stopping by for some mums and other plants."
