Next week: 7th annual Taste of the Gateway offers great dining options

Taste of the Gateway – Discount Dining Days will be held on Tuesday, October 27, and Wednesday, October 28, offering visitors amazing deals at 12 restaurants and food businesses throughout Milwaukee’s Airport Gateway area, said Alderman Scott Spiker.

Alderman Spiker said Taste of the Gateway is coordinated by Airport Gateway Business Improvement District #40 to introduce more people to the district’s restaurants and to bolster greater support for area businesses.

“Taste of the Gateway, now in its seventh year, is a great way for diners to explore the area’s restaurants, with options ranging from tacos and Indian dishes to shawarma and traditional pub favorites,” Alderman Spiker said. “I strongly encourage everyone to come out next week and either try a new spot or return to a favorite location, all while supporting great businesses on Milwaukee’s south side.”

During Taste of the Gateway, customers can get $10 off a purchase of $20 or more at participating locations. Limit one discount per transaction. Business hours vary by location.

“One of the best things about dining in the Gateway area is the variety. You don’t have to go far to find something different,” said Leif Otteson, Executive Director of Gateway to Milwaukee. “With the Brewers giving the city so much to celebrate, we hope people will make our restaurants part of their plans, whether that’s trying something new for lunch or meeting friends for dinner before the game.”
