MEDIA ADVISORY

Ald. Stamper, Save A Lot, and community members to host press conference highlighting holiday partnership

Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II, representatives from Save A Lot, and the Dominican Center will host a press conference on Tuesday, November 10, at 1 p.m. The press conference will highlight several community partnerships within the 15th Aldermanic District aimed at supporting residents and providing extra assistance this holiday season. The press conference will take place at the Save A Lot store located at 2322 W. Oak St.

The Save A Lot Bags for a Brighter Holiday program supports local Save A Lot communities by donating much-needed, high-quality food to local charities helping fight hunger. Customers can purchase pre-assembled bags of food for $4.99 at the register at any local Save A Lot. Each Bag for A Brighter Holiday is stocked with a variety of food items and pantry essentials and will be distributed to local food pantries.
