Housing Resource Fair is set for Saturday, November 7

Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II, Alderman José G. Pérez, and Alderman DiAndre Jackson are inviting residents to the Housing Resource Fair event from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. on Saturday, November 7 at North Division High School, 1011 W. Center St. The event, sponsored by Summit Credit Union, will provide residents with information on the home purchasing process, what to know when hiring a contractor, and more.

The Housing Resource Fair will feature five breakout sessions, including: The Homebuying Process, presented by Summit Credit Union and Housing Resources, Inc., and Homeownership Insurance, presented by Community Insurance Information Center at 10:30 a.m.; Do's and Don'ts of Hiring a Contractor, presented by Housing Resources, Inc. and the Department of City Development at 11:30 a.m.; and concluding with Credit Repair, presented by Summit Credit Union, and Legacy Planning: How to Pass the Home to a Loved One, presented by von Briesen & Roper, s.c. at 12:30 p.m.

Additionally, dozens of vendors will be on-site to provide information and resources, and throughout the day there will be free giveaways of donated items. In advance of the holidays, there will also be a turkey giveaway for attendees.

The Aldermen encourage residents with housing needs or questions to attend the fair. "The Housing Resource Fair is a great opportunity to help individuals collect the tools necessary to be a successful homeowner, and we're excited to provide this invaluable resource for our community as we hope this will be a significant step in increasing homeownership in Milwaukee," they said.
