Villard Avenue Day Festival Marks Its Fourth Year

District 1 continues to build its now annual tradition this Saturday, September 6, 2008 Ald. Ashanti Hamilton will sponsor his district's fourth Villard Avenue Day Festival.

The event, designed to bring the community together and allow families to gather, will include children's activities and contests as well as food vendors and musical entertainment. The event is larger this year than it has been in the past and now has sponsors to help offer larger prizes and events. There will be a raffle for gas cards, bikes and more. New school supplies will also be distributed at the event.

"We've been growing this neighborhood festival each year and the community response has been fantastic. Residents spending time together in a fun, safe environment really helps our district develop the ties and reputation that make for great living," Ald. Hamilton said.

The event runs from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and is on Villard Ave. from 34th St. to 37th St. and the public and press are invited to attend.
