RiverSplash Violence To Be Addressed During City Hall News Conference

Ald. Bauman Will Meet With Media at 3 p.m. Today

The violence and disorder that erupted late Saturday evening (May 31) at RiverSplash will be addressed during a news conference at City Hall this afternoon.

Ald. Robert J. Bauman, whose 4th Aldermanic District includes the N. Old World Third St. and W. Highland Ave. intersection where a man was shot in the foot and bottles were thrown at police officers, will hold the news conference at 3 p.m. today in the first floor Rotunda at City Hall, 200 E. Wells St.

Ald. Bauman said he is interested in looking at what changes might need to happen – including security and hours of operation – for RiverSplash and other events that attract big crowds where alcohol is served. “I want to gather facts about what happened Saturday night from police and others and then make a determination about what needs to change to make sure people are protected and this doesn’t happen again,” he said.

WHAT: News Conference
