The program will be provided at no cost to city job seekers.
Brief description of recipient’s approach to ensuring that response is reasonable and proportional to a public health or negative economic impact of Covid-19	Milwaukee used the Final Rule to fund projects that provide an enumerated use to an eligible population to ensure the response is reasonable and proportional. Funding enumerated uses to eligible populations ensures consistency with the Final Rule. Subsidizing job training and work experience programs increase the local workforce for lead remediation, which reduces the need to rely on expensive companies providing services from distant locations.

Project Description	Project purpose: The project funds subsidies to two private ambulance providers, Bell and Curtis, to stabilize their existing operations and provide basic life support ambulance services to all portions of the city. The Milwaukee Fire Department has long partnered with private ambulance providers to handle the important basic life support (BLS) transports for the emergency medical services (EMS) system. A variety of factors, including flat or declining reimbursement rates, has recently caused the number of private ambulance providers to decrease down to just two providers. This service deficit was worsened by increased system demands during the COVID-19 pandemic. Population served: General public requiring basic life support ambulance services. Desired outcome: Meet the demands on the 911 system for basic life support ambulance service in the City of Milwaukee.

	Project purpose: The project funds the installation of traffic safety improvements along various streets in the city of Milwaukee to address reckless driving. The safety improvements will focus on reducing motor vehicle speeds and passing on the right, which are primary threats to the safety of people walking, biking, taking transit, and driving. The proposed treatments may include curb extensions, pedestrian refuge islands, raised crosswalks, pedestrian signals, pavement markings, new bikeway and transit accommodations, street trees, and green infrastructure. A portion of the project includes rapid implementation improvements that use cost effective materials such as pavement markings and flexible delineator posts to address traffic safety issues. These improvements can be quickly installed as an interim or pilot measure to address immediate hazards. This interim approach on select corridors allows the Department of Public Works to work closely with community partners to identify solutions that increase traffic safety, and are supported by people living and working nearby. Additionally, these infrastructure improvements will be complemented by seed grant funding for community-based organizations (CBOs) along the Pedestrian High Injury Network corridors to conduct various education and awareness campaigns related to reckless driving and the new traffic safety improvements. Modeled off the 2021 Reckless Driving Mini-Grant Program, these seed grants will be distributed to various CBOs to conduct events such as community walks, pedestrian safety action campaigns, and community fairs, as well as for awareness campaigns such as physical (ex. billboards, yard signs, bus ads) and social media (ex. videos, live feeds) messaging. These improvements will be complemented by speed limit reductions on various corridors, neighborhoods, and/or citywide, as well as by revising the assessment to property owners for speed humps to ensure more people can afford to install speed humps on their block.

Project Description

Population served: General public within the City of Milwaukee experiencing reckless driving.

Desired outcome: Increase traffic safety, reduce reckless driving, and eliminate fatal and severe crashes along the most dangerous streets in Milwaukee.

Outcome measurement (project totals):

Number of rapid implementation projects 9

Number of intersections improved 51

Miles of traffic safety improvement projects 6

Number of speed humps constructed 240
