Attachments: Discharge Appeal - Marwan Muna, DPW - 2

The Commission reconvened after a break in the hearing process at 3:33 p.m. and while President Bock was speaking, Mr. Muna was interrupting the proceedings and then insulted the Commission and audience with profanity and abruptly left the virtual meeting. Mr. Muna did not return to the meeting. The Commission then went into close session at 4:08 p.m. and came back into open session at 4:13 p.m. to render a decision in this matter.

The Commission motioned that the Department of Public Works did have cause to discharge the employee, Mr. Marwan Muna, and based on a preponderance of evidence up to the point of Mr. Muna's departure sustained the charges of the department with the penalty being discharged from City Service.
