Statement from Commissioner of Health Bevan K. Baker

Congratulations to University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Joseph J. Zilber School of Public Health

“The City of Milwaukee Health Department (MHD) extends its congratulations to the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Joseph J. Zilber School of Public Health on becoming the first nationally accredited school of public health in the state of Wisconsin.”

“As a key partner in conducting innovative research, developing evidence-based solutions, and educating tomorrow’s public health practitioners, the Zilber School not only serves to inform public policy today, but guide the public health practitioners into the future.”

“Residents across the state can be proud of the global impact this accomplishment will have on the public health workforce.”
