

HUMAN RESOURCES REPRESENTATIVE HUMAN RESOURCES ANALYST-SENIOR (Fire and Police Commission)

These positions will be filled at the level of Human Resources Representative (SG 07) or Human Resources Analyst-Sr. (SG 05), depending upon the qualifications of the candidate and the needs of the Fire and Police Commission. There are currently two vacancies. The list resulting from this examination may be used to fill similar City of Milwaukee positions.

PURPOSE: The Human Resources Representative (Human Resources Analyst-Sr.) conducts all phases of the hiring and promotional selection processes for an urban public safety workforce including approximately 3,000 sworn positions under the governance of the Fire and Police Commission (FPC). Selection functions include recruitment, job analysis, test development, test review and evaluation, and test administration as well as organizational development. This position may also provide other human resource services as needed.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

- ❖ Recruitment: Develop and execute recruitment plans and strategies. Review and prepare job announcement bulletins.
- ❖ Job analysis: Determine appropriate job analysis methods; conduct job analysis to determine critical tasks and the knowledge, skills, abilities, and other characteristics necessary for successful job performance. Review job descriptions.
- ❖ Test development: Plan and develop or recommend use of valid and reliable test components, including written, oral and performance examinations and education and experience ratings (including minimum requirements), and other assessment exercises based on job analysis and consistent with professional standards and legal guidelines. Consult with operating departments and subject matter experts to determine content and to ensure job-relatedness of tests. Make recommendations for modifying and improving examination and selection processes on the basis of accumulated research data and independent statistical research.
- ❖ FPC representation: Represent the FPC regarding recruitment and selection activities. Work with examination consultants regarding selection issues and serve as liaison among department personnel, outside agencies, and selection consultants.
- ❖ Test administration: Determine timelines for each selection process component and schedule test administrations; maintain effective and timely communication with candidates and hiring authority. Identify and secure subject matter experts to serve as raters; administer oral and performance examinations and other assessment exercises, and determine eligibility of applicants based upon minimum requirements. Ensure test procedures adhere to selection guidelines and maintain confidentiality of examination and candidate information. Maintain contact with a high volume of entry level and promotional applicants throughout the selection process, including meeting with/counseling candidates concerning job requirements and examination results.
- ❖ Facilitation of hiring process: Provide training, guidance and/or assistance to those who conduct employment interviews, background investigations, medical/psychological exams and other assessment exercises. Coordinate these components of hiring process, review background investigation reports, and administer and represent the department in background investigation appeal hearings.
- ❖ FPC Research/Complaint investigation and response: Provide updates and information, respond to inquiries and perform analysis and research for the FPC Executive Director and the Commission. Investigate and respond to USERRA, EEOC and ERD complaints and testify in hearings.
- ❖ Human resource planning and advising: Participate in human resources planning and discussions of staffing issues with public safety departments and employees; advise and assist Executive Director, Commission and public safety departmental managers regarding employment laws, rules, policies and procedures, labor contracts and human resource issues.
- ❖ Other: Represent the Executive Director and Commissioners at community meetings, recruitment functions, and inter-departmental activities.

Reasonable accommodations requested by qualified individuals with disabilities will be made in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990.
