Introduction

Located on the western shore of Lake Michigan, Milwaukee is an urban hub bursting with energy. Milwaukee provides a casual sophistication – big city appeal without the big city hassles. We are accessible and affordable, and our residents are welcoming. Milwaukee has evolved through the years, bringing together its unsurpassed old world charm with a breathtaking Art Museum, top-flight arts and cultural attractions, professional sports, lakefront festivals, recreational opportunities, and great restaurants.

Human Resources Representative and Human Resources Analyst-Senior

Department of Employee Relations-Compensation Services

This position will be filled at the level of Human Resources Representative (PG 2HX) or Human Resources Analyst-Senior (PG 2FX), depending upon the qualifications of the candidate and the needs of the Department of Employee Relations. Eligible candidates who successfully complete the selection process will be placed on the highest level eligible list for which they qualify. The eligible lists resulting from this examination may be used to fill similar City of Milwaukee positions.

Purpose

Under the direction of the Human Resources Manager, the Human Resources Representative or Human Resources Analyst-Senior provides a full range of professional personnel services to City departments, employees and the public in meeting all facets of City departments' human resources needs. The primary focus of this position is the classification and compensation of City of Milwaukee positions.

Essential Functions

- Study new and existing jobs for proper classification.
- Perform market pay studies for job classifications.
- Prepare logical, well-researched and substantiated recommendation reports for the City Service Commission (CSC), Fire and Police Commission (FPC) and the Finance and Personnel Committee (F&P).
- Assist customer departments in implementing the compensation impacts of classifications, reorganizations and job restructuring.
- Provide guidance and information concerning pay and benefits to DER staff, departments and employees.
- Research and recommend rule changes, policies, guidelines and procedures as related to the CSC and Salary Ordinance; represent DER before the CSC, FPC and F&P.

Reasonable accommodations requested by qualified individuals with disabilities will be made in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, as amended by the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA) of 2008.

Conditions of Employment

- Occasional early morning, evening and weekend work may be required to meet with departments and employees related to job evaluation studies or appear before committees.
- At times, when studying positions, work may take place in settings with variable environmental conditions, such as City field buildings, streets or water plants.
- Position requires occasional lifting and moving of objects weighing up to 10 lbs.

Minimum Requirements

1. Both levels: Bachelor's degree in human resources management, industrial relations, education, psychology, business administration, finance, management, public administration or a related field from an accredited college or university.
2. Human Resources Representative (PG 2HX): Three years of progressively responsible experience performing duties related to job compensation and classification.
3. Human Resources Analyst-Senior (PG 2FX): Two years of progressively responsible experience as described above.

4. Both levels: Valid Driver's License at the time of appointment and throughout employment.

Equivalent combinations of education and experience may also be considered.

IMPORTANT NOTE: College transcripts are required and must be received by the application period closing date. Transcripts should be attached to your online application. Applications without transcripts attached will be considered incomplete and will be rejected. Student/unofficial copies are acceptable; however, your transcript must be legible and include your college/university name, your name, the degree completed (if applicable) and the date completed.

Desirable Qualifications

- Master's degree in industrial relations, organizational or educational psychology, finance, business administration, public administration, human resources management or a closely related field from an accredited college or university.
 - Graduate level coursework or training in statistics.
