Teen Job Fair Happening Monday, May 15

The second annual teen job fair hosted by Ald. Ashanti Hamilton is taking place on Monday, May 15, 2006, and young people looking for a good summer job should not miss this event.

The job fair will go from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday at the Holy Redeemer-Daniels Mardak Boys & Girls Club, 3500 W. Mother Daniels Way. Joining Ald. Hamilton as hosts for the event will be County Supervisor Toni Clark, state Rep. Jason Fields, and Lanelle Ramey of the Daniels-Mardak Boys & Girls Club. The event is free, and the public and media are invited to attend.

Featured employers include the City of Milwaukee Summer Internship Program, Roundy's, V & J Employment Services, McDonald's, Lena's Foods, the Wisconsin Housing and Economic Development Authority (WHEDA), St. Camillus Health Center, Integrated Mail Industries, Pizza Hut, and the U.S. Army, Navy and Air Force.

Last year's inaugural job fair was a huge success, Ald. Hamilton said, and he expects Monday's fair to be even bigger. "Rather than having young people go all over the place applying for summer jobs, the job fair brings the employers to the people in one place," said Ald. Hamilton. "It's an efficient and effective way for the employers to talk to prospective workers, and it allows students to explore several potential job prospects."
