Police Chief To Discuss Crime Issues

A second fatal shooting at N. 36th and W. Villard Ave. in Milwaukee in the past year has raised new concerns about crime and the safety of residents in the 1st Aldermanic District as well as throughout the city, and Ald. Ashanti Hamilton invites residents to a meeting next week to voice their concerns. A Milwaukee man was shot last Tuesday night in the 3600 block of W. Villard Ave. as he walked home from work. The location is near the gas station where an undercover state drug enforcement agent was killed last year.

Ald. Hamilton will be joined by Police Chief Nannette Hegerty to talk about public safety and other issues at a Monday, November 21, 2005 Town Hall meeting. It will be held at the Villard Ave. Library, 3310 W. Villard Ave. beginning at 5:00 p.m. Media coverage is welcome.

“I invite all residents to attend this important discussion on crime and the loss of life in our neighborhoods,” said Ald. Hamilton. “We need the help of all our citizens to stop the violence.”
