

April 17, 2006

Ald. Robert J. Bauman
(414) 286-2886

Chief Hegerty To Appear At Alderman's Town Hall Meeting Tomorrow Night

Lively Town Hall Meeting Will Include Timely Discussion of Issues, Projects

A public town hall meeting tomorrow night will include Police Chief Nannette Hegerty and other key city officials discussing public safety, neighborhood and sanitation services, the Downtown Transit Connector Study and the Community Prosecution Unit.

The meeting, hosted by Ald. Robert J. Bauman, will begin at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow, Tuesday, April 18, 2006 at Marquette University High School, 3306 W. Michigan St. Other invited city officials include Department of Neighborhood Services Commissioner Martin Collins, Supt. Preston Cole of the Department of Public Works' Environmental Services Division, Assistant City Attorney Vincent Bobot, and John Chisholm, assistant Milwaukee County District Attorney. All members of the public and the media are invited to attend.

Ald. Bauman, whose 4th District includes Milwaukee's downtown, East Town, Merrill Park and Avenues West, said the meeting will include timely discussions of the Frank Jude, Jr. beating case and its aftermath, as well as the Connector project.

"Tomorrow night's meeting will offer citizens a prime opportunity to talk directly to city government leaders about their services, about pending projects and about what's happening in their city," he said.