Outrage In Aftermath Of Sexual Assault Of 11-Year-Old Girl

News Conference Today Near Scene of Horrendous Crime

Ald. Mike McGee, Jr. will host a news conference today at 3 p.m. near where up to 19 people reportedly participated earlier this week in the sexual assault of an 11-year-old girl. The alderman will be joined by 6th Aldermanic District ward captains, members of the Rapid Response Team, and concerned citizens.

Ald. McGee, whose district includes the residential address where the assault occurred, said he is outraged “by the callous and inhumane” treatment of the girl. “It’s an outrageous and unspeakable crime that shows some people are willing to lower themselves to an animalistic level,” he said.

“The individuals who participated in this heinous act of violence must be held accountable for their crimes,” Ald. McGee said.

WHAT: News conference re: sex assault of girl
WHEN: Thursday, September 7 at 3:00 p.m.
WHERE: Intersection of N. 6th and W. Melvina Streets
