A Garden Conversation Coming July 9

If it has to do with gardens or gardening in general it's worth discussing during the "Garden Conversation" event on Monday evening, July 9, at the Tippecanoe Library, 3912 S. Howell Ave.

Alderman Terry L. Witkowski and members of the 13th District Garden Committee will host the event, slated to begin at 6:30 p.m. Ald. Witkowski, who has led an effort to call the 13th Aldermanic District the "Garden District" because of its proud tradition of beautiful, award-winning residential gardens, said the event Monday will allow citizens to discuss their garden and/or gardening techniques. "This event gives area residents a chance to exchange ideas and information and to come together to work on this area becoming the Garden District," he said. A committee meeting will follow the conversation session and new members are welcome to join.

The event is free and open to the public.
